CHAPTER 2. SHARES OF STOCK

Article 5. Total Number of Shares of Stock to be Issued

The total number of shares authorized to be issued by the Company is billion (1,000,000,000) shares.

Article 6. Par Value per Share

Each share that the Company issues shall have a par value of five thousand (5,000) Korean won.

Article 7. Total Number of Shares to be Issued at Establishment

The total number of the shares to be issued by the Company at the time of its establishment shall be forty-seven million seventy-two thousand and sixteen (47,072,016) registered common shares and two million eighty-two thousand six hundred and eighteen (2,082,618) registered preferred shares.

Article 8. Class of Shares

- ① The classes of shares to be issued by the Company shall be registered common shares and registered class shares.
- ② Class shares to be issued by the Company shall consist of shares of classes with varying conditions with respect to the dividends, distribution of remaining assets, the exercise of voting rights at a general meeting of shareholders, redemption and conversion, etc., as well as shares that combine all or part of the foregoing.

Article 8-2. Dividend Preferred Shares

- ① The Company may issue participating or non-participating dividend preferred shares, cumulative or non-cumulative dividend preferred shares, separately or as a combination of the foregoing in various forms within the limit of applicable laws and regulations and by a resolution of the Board of Directors.
- ② The dividend preferred shares shall be preferentially paid a dividend in cash or in kind at the stipulated dividend rate as determined by the Board of Directors at the time of issuing the dividend preferred shares, in consideration of the dividend rate, interest rate, market conditions and all other circumstances related to the issuance of the dividend preferred shares, based on the par value.
- ③ When the Company increases capital stock with or without consideration, (i) in the case of the capital stock increase with consideration, allotment of new shares may be made to the dividend preferred shares with the same class of shares or a different class of shares by a resolution of the Board of Directors, and (ii) in the case of capital stock increase without consideration, with the same class of shares.

- ④ Duration of the dividend preferred shares may be determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of issuance of the shares concerned, and the dividend preferred shares shall be converted into common shares upon the expiration of duration. But if the Company does not pay the prescribed dividend to the dividend preferred shares during the above period, the duration may be extended by a resolution of the Board of Directors until the prescribed dividend is fully paid. In this case, Article 14, Paragraph 1 may apply mutatis mutandis to the distribution of dividends for the shares to be issued upon conversion, which shall be decided by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of issuing the dividend preferred shares.

Article 8-3 (Shares with Liquidation Preference)

- ① The Company may, in issuing Dividend Preferred Shares pursuant to the provision of Article 8-2, issue shares with liquidation preference (“Shares with Liquidation Preference” and, together with the dividend preferred shares, the “Preferred Shares”) that have the right to receive the distribution of remaining assets in preference to common shares when the Company distributes its remaining assets to shareholders in the event of liquidation stipulated under applicable laws and regulations and/or these Articles of Incorporation.
- ② Shares with Liquidation Preference shall receive the amount according to the preferred ratio set by the Board of Directors upon issuance within the scope permitted under applicable laws and regulations in cash in preference.
- ③ In the case of distributing remaining assets to common shares, following the preferred distribution of remaining assets to Shares with Liquidation Preference, the issue of whether to distribute the remaining assets with Shares with Liquidation Preference participating in the distribution and other matters related to remaining asset distribution shall be determined by the Board of Directors upon issuance.

Article 8-4 (Shares with Voting Rights Exclusion/Restriction)

- ① The Company may issue shares whose voting rights are excluded (referred to as “Voting Rights-excluded Shares” hereinafter) within the extent permitted under applicable laws and regulations based on a resolution by the Board of Directors.
- ② The Company may issue shares whose voting rights are partially or entirely restricted with respect to the following matters (referred to as “Voting Rights-restricted Shares”) to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations based on a resolution by the Board of Directors:

1. Appointment and dismissal of directors
  2. Appointment and dismissal of auditors
  3. Matters set by the Board of Directors concerning the issuance of class shares as matters to which voting rights may not be granted among matters subject to a resolution by a general meeting of shareholders
- ③ If Dividend Preferred Shares are issued as Voting Rights-excluded Shares or Voting Rights-restricted Shares and if there is a resolution that prescribes that dividends may not be paid to the Dividend Preferred Shares concerned, the Board of Directors may set the excluded or restricted voting rights to revive from the general meeting of shareholders immediately following the general meeting of shareholders where the resolution was made until the end of the general meeting where there is a resolution to pay the preferred dividends.

Article 8-5. Convertible Shares

- ① The Company may issue convertible shares by a resolution of the Board of Directors to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations.
- ② The total issuing price of shares to be issued by conversion shall be the total issuing price of shares before the conversion.
- ③ The Company may, by a resolution of the Board of Directors, issue (i) convertible shares that will be converted upon the expiration of duration, (ii) convertible shares that will be converted at the option of the Company, (iii) convertible shares that will be converted upon a claim by a shareholder, (iv) and convertible shares that combine all or part of the said shares.
- ④ In the event of the following, the Company may issue convertible shares that may be converted at the option of the Company:
  1. When it is necessary for the improvement of the financial position of the Company;
  2. Business management necessity of the Company, or other reasons determined by the Board of Directors, in consideration of all circumstances related to the issuance of class shares.
- ⑤ Convertible shares that may be converted upon the request of shareholders may be issued based on reasons determined by the Board of Directors at the time of issuance, in consideration of all circumstances related to the issuance of convertible shares.

- ⑥ The shares to be issued by conversion shall be common shares or class shares, as determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of issuance of the convertible shares.
- ⑦ The number of shares to be issued by conversion shall be determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of issuance of the convertible shares.
- ⑧ The period that a conversion may be exercised or a conversion request be made shall be determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of issuance of the convertible shares and be up to thirty (30) years from the date of issuance.
- ⑨ Article 14, Paragraph 1 may apply mutatis mutandis to the payment of dividends for the shares to be issued upon conversion, and the applicability shall be decided by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of issuance of the convertible shares.

Article 8-6. Redeemable Shares

- ① The Company may issue redeemable shares which may be redeemed upon the request of shareholders or at the option of the Company by a resolution of the Board of Directors to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations.
- ② The redemption price of redeemable shares shall be calculated by the sum of the issue price and premium (only in cases where there is a premium), and the premium amount shall be determined by the Board of Directors at the time of issuing the redeemable shares in consideration of the dividend rate, interest rate, market conditions and all other circumstances related to the issuance of the redeemable shares; provided, however, that if the Company issues redeemable shares whose redemption price may be adjusted, the Board of Directors shall determine, at the time of issuance of such redeemable shares, that the redemption price may be subject to adjustments along with the causes for adjustment, reference date and method of adjustment, etc.
- ③ The redemption period of redeemable shares shall be determined by the Board of Directors at the time of issuance and be up to thirty (30) years from the issuance date, in consideration of dividend rates, interest rates, market conditions and all other circumstances relating to the issuance of the redeemable shares.
- ④ In the event of redemption at the option of the Company, the redeemable shares may be redeemed on a lump sum basis or in installments; provided, however, that in the case of redemption in installments, the Company may set the stocks to be redeemed by drawings or on a prorated basis, and any fractional shares arising from such proration may not be redeemed.

- ⑤ In the event of redemption at the option of the Company, the Company shall notify or give public notice of this redemption to the shareholders holding the shares and the right holders listed on the register of shareholders two (2) weeks prior to the acquisition date of the shares to be redeemed.
- ⑥ In the event of redemption upon the request of shareholders, shareholders may request the Company to redeem all of the redeemable shares on a lump sum basis or in installments, in which case the such shareholders shall give notice to the Company, at least two (2) weeks prior to the redemption, their intention and the shares subject to be redeemed; provided, however, that if the Company does not have sufficient profit available for the dividend to redeem all of the redeemable shares in a lump sum, the Company may determine shares to be redeemed by drawing or on a prorated basis, and any fractional shares arising from such proration may not be redeemed.
- ⑦ If the Company issues redeemable shares under Article 8-5 herein as redeemable shares that may be redeemed at the option of the Company, the priority between the shareholders' exercise of redemption right and the redemption at the option of the Company may be determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of issuance of the shares.
- ⑧ The Company may distribute marketable securities (excluding shares of a different class) or other assets in lieu of cash as consideration for the Company's acquisition of shares.
- ⑨ In the event of capital increase with consideration, share dividend, or capital increase without consideration, new shares may not be allocated or the dividend may not be paid to the redeemable shares, which shall be determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of issuance of the redeemable shares.

Article 8-7. Additional Dividend Shares without Voting Rights

- ① The Company may issue additional dividend shares without voting rights based on a resolution of the Board of Directors to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations.
- ② Dividends for additional dividend shares without voting rights shall be non-participatory and non-accumulative, and a 1% per annum than common shares shall be allocated additionally based on the par value only in the case of cash dividends; provided, however, that this may not apply to stock dividends, if any.

- ③ The preferred period of additional dividend shares without voting rights shall be indefinite.
- ④ If a predetermined dividend is not made for additional dividend shares without voting rights, the voting rights of additional dividend shares without voting rights shall be revived.

Article 9. (Deleted on May 23, 2023)

Article 10. Electronic Registration of Stocks and Rights to be Indicated on Subscription Right Certificates

The Company, in lieu of issuing stock certificates or subscription right certificates, shall perform the electronic registration of stocks or the rights to be indicated on subscription right certificates in the electronic register of an electronic registry.

Article 11. Issuance and Allocation of Shares

- ① The Company may issue new shares by a resolution of the Board of Directors, through any of the measures specified in the following Subparagraphs:
  - 1. providing shareholders the opportunity to subscribe for any additional shares in proportion to their respective shareholdings
  - 2. in a manner other than the method under Subparagraph 1 of this Article, providing specified persons (including shareholders of the Company) with the opportunity to subscribe for new shares up to 30% of the total outstanding shares of the Company in order to achieve the management goals of the Company, such as improvement of the financial structure or introduction of new technology
  - 3. in a manner other than the method under Subparagraph 1 of this Article, providing unspecified persons (including shareholders of the Company) with the opportunity to subscribe for new shares up to 50% of the total outstanding shares of the Company
- ② If the Company issues new shares pursuant to Subparagraph 3 of Paragraph 1, the Company shall allocate the new shares by a resolution of the Board of Directors in accordance with one of the following measures:
  - 1. by allocating new shares to multiple and unspecified subscribers without classifying those who grant the opportunity to make an offer to subscribe for new shares

2. by allocating new shares to members of the Employee Stock Ownership Association in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations, and then providing unspecified persons with the opportunity to subscribe for new shares, including those shares not subscribed for by members of the Employee Stock Ownership Association
  3. granting shareholders of the Company the opportunity to subscribe for new shares, and then providing unspecified persons with the opportunity to subscribe for the remaining shares if there are any unsubscribed new shares
  4. providing specific types of persons with the opportunity to subscribe for new shares in accordance with reasonable criteria specified in the applicable laws and regulations, such as a demand analysis prepared by underwriters or investment agents who provide underwriting or brokerage services
- ③ If the Company allocates new shares pursuant to Subparagraphs 2 or 3 of Paragraph 1 of this Article, the Company shall notify the shareholders or publicly announce the requirements prescribed in Subparagraphs 1, 2, 2-2, 3 and 4 of Article 416 of the Commercial Act by no later than two (2) weeks prior to the due date for payment. But if Company makes a public announcement to the Financial Services Commission and the Stock Exchange pursuant to Article 165-9 of the Financial Investment Services and Capital Markets Act, the Company is deemed to have made the notification and the announcement required under this Paragraph.
- ④ If the Company issues new shares with a method under any of the Subparagraphs of Paragraph 1 of this Article, the types, numbers and par value of the shares to be issued shall be determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors.
- ⑤ When the Company allocates new shares and new shares are not subscribed or the price of new shares is not paid by the due date, such unsubscribed or unpaid shares shall be disposed of by the resolution of the Board of Directors, in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations, including taking into account the appropriateness of issue price. The Company shall determine the method of dealing with fractional shares resulting from the allocation of the new shares by a resolution of the Board of Directors.
- ⑥ If the Company allocates new shares to shareholders pursuant to Subparagraph 1 of Paragraph 1 of this Article, the Company shall issue certificates of stock rights to such shareholders.

Article 12. (Deleted on March 28, 2014)

Article 13. Stock Options

- ① The Company may grant its officers and employees (this shall include officers and employees of related companies pursuant to Article 30 of the Enforcement Decree of the Commercial Act; the same applies hereinafter) stock options by a special resolution of a general meeting of shareholders, to the extent of not exceeding fifteen hundredths (15/100) of the total number of shares issued and outstanding; provided, however, that the Company may grant stock options to a person other than directors of the Company, within the scope of one hundredth (1/100) of the number of shares issued and outstanding, by a resolution of the Board of Directors. Granting a stock option under a resolution of the Board of Directors shall be approved by the first general meeting of shareholders convened after granting the stock option.
- ② Officers and employees who may be granted the stock option shall be those who made or can make contributions to the establishment, management, overseas operations or technology innovation, etc. of the Company; provided, however, that the following parties shall be excluded:
  1. The largest shareholder (as provided under Article 542-8, Paragraph 2, Subparagraph 5 of the Commercial Act, referred to as the “Largest Shareholder” hereinafter) and the related parties thereto (as provided under Article 34(4) of the Enforcement Decree of the Commercial Act, referred to as the “Related Party” hereinafter); however, those who became a Related Party by becoming its officers, including directors or auditors of an affiliated company who are not engaged in regular business, can be granted stock options
  2. Major shareholders (as provided for under Article 542-8, Paragraph 2, Subparagraph 6 of the Commercial Act, hereinafter “Major Shareholders”) and the Related Parties thereto, except those who became Related Parties by becoming its officer, including directors or auditors of an affiliated company who are not engaged in regular business
  3. A person who becomes a Major Shareholder through the exercise of his stock options
- ③ The shares to be granted to the holder of the stock option (where the options are exchanged for cash or treasury stock, the number of shares that are equivalent to the difference in the exercise price and the actual market price of the stock) shall be registered common shares.

- ④ The number of officers and employees who will receive the stock option shall be no more than ninety (90) percent of the total number of officers and employees, and no one (1) officer or employee may be given stock options exceeding one (1) percent of the total shares issued and outstanding.
- ⑤ The exercise price per share of the stock options shall be greater than the amount in each of the Subparagraphs below. The same shall apply when adjusting the exercise price after granting the stock option.
  1. For a grant from a new issuance of shares, whichever is the higher of the following amounts shall apply:
    - a. The actual value of the stock based on the day the stock option was granted
    - b. The par value of the stock
  2. For the assignment of treasury stocks, the actual value of the stock based on the day the stock option was granted.
- ⑥ Stock options may be exercised after two (2) years have elapsed from the resolution date specified in Paragraph 1, and no later than five (5) years from the resolution date.
- ⑦ Any person who was granted the stock option may exercise it only after he has served for two (2) years or longer from the date on which the resolution was passed as specified in Paragraph 1 above. But in the event of a death of a person who was granted the stock option, or if the grantee has resigned or retired for reasons for which he or she bears no responsibility within two (2) years from the date of the resolution, he or she may exercise the stock option during that period.
- ⑧ The provision of Article 14 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the payment of profit dividends for new shares issued pursuant to the exercise of the stock option.
- ⑨ In any of the following circumstances, the granted stock option may be recalled by a resolution of the Board of Directors:
  1. Where the officer or employee who has been granted a stock option voluntarily retires from his/her office after being granted a stock option;
  2. Where the officer or employee that has been granted a stock option causes substantial damage to the Company due to his/her willful misconduct or negligence;

3. Where the Company is unable to respond to the stock option exercise due to the Company's bankruptcy or dissolution; or
4. Where any cause for cancellation set forth in the stock option agreement occurs.

Article 13-2. Employee Stock Options

- ① The Company may grant employee stock options up to twenty one hundredths (20/100) of the total number of issued stocks as provided under the Framework Act on Labor Welfare, following a resolution at a general meeting of shareholders; provided, however, that if employee stock options are granted within the limits of one tenth (10/100) of the total number of issued stocks, employee stock options may be granted with a resolution of the Board of Directors.
- ② The type of shares to be issued as a result of exercising the employee stock options shall be registered common shares.
- ③ In any of the following circumstances, the employee stock options may be revoked through a resolution of the Board of Directors:
  1. The Employee Stock Ownership Association member who has been granted the employee stock option causes damages to the Company due to negligence or willful misconduct
  2. The Company is insolvent or dissolved and is thus unable to respond to the exercise of the employee stock option
  3. Any of the conditions for revocation specified in the contract for granting the employee stock option are met
- ④ In the event the Company issues new shares as a result of the exercise of the employee stock option, with regard to profit dividends for the new shares, the issuance shall be deemed to have been made at the end of the last business year prior to the year when the actual issuance is made.

Article 14. Initial Date for Recognizing New Share Dividends

- ① If the Company issues new shares based on paid-in capital increase, bonus issue and stock dividends, the issuance shall be deemed to have been made at the end of the last business year prior to the year when the actual issuance is made, for the purpose of determining the applicable profits for the payment of dividends.
- ② The Company may determine that Paragraph 1 above is not applied mutatis mutandis by a resolution of the Board of Directors when issuing new shares.

Article 15. Transfer Agent

- ① The Company shall have a transfer agent.
- ② The Board of Directors, by its resolution, shall determine and declare the appointment of a transfer agent, the location of its office, and the scope of its business.
- ③ The Company shall keep a register of shareholders or a copy thereof in the office of a transfer agent and have the transfer agent handle the electronic registration of the shares, the management of the registry of shareholders and other administrative duties related to the shares.
- ④ The procedures to handle the businesses provided in Paragraph 3 above shall conform to the provisions concerning transfer services by transfer agents for securities.

Article 15-2. Preparation and Keeping of Registry of Shareholders

- ① In the case the Company is notified of the specification of owners from an electronic registration agency, the Company shall prepare and keep the registry of shareholders in which the matters notified and the date of notification are recorded.
- ② The Company may, in case there is a change in the status of any shareholder (including specially-related persons, etc.) holding five (5) percent or more of the Company's equity interest or in other necessary cases, request an electronic registration authority to prepare the register of holders.

Article 16. Reference Date of the Register of Shareholders

- ① The Company shall deem those shareholders whose names appear in the register of shareholders on December 31 of each year to be the shareholders entitled to exercise their rights as shareholders at the annual general meeting of shareholders related to the settlement period.
- ② When required, the Company shall deem those shareholders whose names appear in the register of shareholders as of the date set by a resolution of the Board of Directors; for example, when it is necessary to convene an extraordinary meeting of shareholders. In such a case, the Company shall give public notice two (2) weeks in advance.
- ③ (Deleted on May 23, 2023).

CHAPTER 3 BONDS

Article 17. Issuance of Bonds

- ① The Company may issue bonds by a resolution of the Board of Directors.
- ② The Board of Directors may delegate to the Representative Director the authority to issue bonds within a period not exceeding one (1) year, by designating the amount and types of the bonds to be issued.

Article 18. Issuance and Allocation of Convertible Bonds

- ① The Company may issue convertible bonds to parties other than its shareholders by a resolution of the Board of Directors for the purpose of achieving management objectives including the introduction of new technology and improvement of financial structure, provided that the total par value of such bonds when issued does not exceed four trillion (4,000,000,000,000) Korean won.
- ② (Deleted on May 23, 2023)
- ③ If the convertible bonds are issued pursuant to Paragraph 1, the Board of Directors may attach conditions that limit the right to convert to only a part of the issuance.
- ④ The shares to be issued due to conversion shall be common shares or the class of shares prescribed in these Articles of Incorporation, and the conversion rate shall be set at or over the par value of the shares by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of the issuance of the bond. The conversion period shall be from the day of issuing the convertible bonds and to the date immediately preceding the redemption date unless otherwise provided in applicable laws and regulations. However, the Company can adjust the conversion period during the aforementioned period by a resolution of the Board of Directors.
- ⑤ The provision of Article 14 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the profit dividends for the shares issued due to conversion and to payment of the interest on the convertible bonds.

Article 19. Issuance and Allocation of Bonds with Warrants

- ① The Company may issue a bond with warrants to any persons other than its shareholders by a resolution of its Board of Directors for the purpose of achieving management objectives including the introduction of new technology and improvement of financial structure; provided that the total par value of the bonds with warrants does not exceed four trillion (4,000,000,000,000) Korean.

- ② (Deleted on May 23, 2023)
- ③ The amount for which the warrant can be requested shall be determined by the Board of Directors within a scope that does not exceed the total par value of the bonds.
- ④ The shares to be issued upon exercise of the warrant shall be determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of the issuance of the relevant bonds as common shares or the class of shares prescribed herein in the Articles of Incorporation, and the applicable issue price of the shares shall not be lower than the par value of each share, as determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of issuance of the bonds.
- ⑤ The provisions of Article 14 herein shall apply mutatis mutandis to profits dividends of the shares to be issued by the exercise of the warrant.
- ⑥ The period to exercise the warrant shall be from the date after issuing the relevant bond to the date immediately preceding the redemption date unless otherwise provided in applicable laws and regulations; provided, however, the period to exercise the warrant may be adjusted within the above period by a resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of the relevant bond issuance.

Article 19-2. Electronic Registration of Bonds or Rights to be Indicated on Subscription Right Certificates

The Company, instead of issuing bonds or subscription right certificates, shall electronically register rights attached to bonds or subscription rights on the electronic register of an electronic registry; provided that, except for bonds listed on the securities market that are required to be electronically registered by law, the Company may decide not to electronically register bonds.

Article 20. Applicable Provision to Issuance of Bond

The provisions of Article 15 herein shall apply mutatis mutandis with regard to the issuance of bonds.

CHAPTER 4. GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 21. Period of Convocation

- ① General meetings of shareholders of the Company shall be regular general meetings of shareholders and extraordinary general meetings of shareholders.
- ② A regular general meeting of shareholders shall be held within three (3) months after the end of every fiscal year, and an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders shall be convened as necessary.

Article 22. Persons with the Right to Convene

- ① Except as otherwise provided for in the applicable laws and regulations, a general meeting of shareholders shall be convened by the Representative Director of the Company in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors.
- ② If the Representative Director is absent, Article 39 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Article 23. (Deleted on May 23, 2023)

Article 24. Notice of Convocation and Public Notice

- ① The Company shall give shareholders written or electronic notice of the time, date, place and purpose of the meeting when convening a general meeting of shareholders at least two (2) weeks before the day of the general meeting. If directors or auditors are to be elected at the general meeting, the notice shall include each candidate's name, resume, recommender and other information as required by the Presidential Decree under the Commercial Act.
- ② For shareholders holding less than one (1) percent of the total issued and outstanding voting shares of the Company, the notice of convocation may be fulfilled through a public notice published on no less than two (2) occasions in each of the two (2) daily newspapers distributed in Seoul, Korea such as the Maeil Business Newspaper and the Korea Economic Daily, or on the DART system (Data Analysis, Retrieval and Transfer System) of the Financial Supervisory Service, or on the KIND System (Korea Investor's Network for Disclosure System) of the Korea Exchange two (2) weeks prior to the general meeting. Such notices shall set forth the intention to convene a general meeting of shareholders and the purpose of the meeting.

- ③ When a notice or announcement of convocation of a general meeting of shareholders is made by the Company, it shall include the following; provided, however, that the Company may publish the related information on its website and make it available for the public to read by placing it in places prescribed under Article 31 of the Enforcement Decree of the Commercial Act in lieu of the notice or announcement:
1. Activities and compensation matters relating to outside directors and other directors who are not engaged in regular business activities, such as frequency of attendance at Board meetings, their votes on the agenda items at Board meetings, etc.
  2. Among matters related to transactions with the largest shareholder, etc. in accordance with Article 542-9, Paragraph 3 of the Commercial Act, matters stipulated under the Presidential Decree under the same Act
  3. Business overviews such as current operations report and reference documents that are written for each purpose of a general meeting of shareholders in the manner designated by the relevant authorities

Article 25. Place of Convocation

General meetings of shareholders may be held at the head office, another nearby place, or in Seoul, Korea.

Article 26. Chairman

- ① The Representative Director shall serve as the chairman of a general meeting of shareholders.
- ② If the Representative Director is absent, Article 39 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Article 27. Chairman's Authority to Maintain Order

- ① The Chairman of a general meeting of shareholders may order any person who significantly disturbs the order at the meeting by making speeches and engaging in behavior to intentionally disrupt the progress of the proceedings to stop the speech or leave the room.
- ② The Chairman of a general meeting of shareholders may limit the time and number of speeches given by a shareholder in order to ensure the smooth proceedings of the meeting.

Article 28. Voting Rights of Shareholders

Shareholders' voting rights shall be one (1) vote per share.

Article 29. Limitation on Voting Rights for Shares in Mutual Ownership

If the Company, parent company and subsidiaries own shares in excess of one tenth of the total outstanding and issued shares of another company, the shares of the Company held by that other company shall have no voting right.

Article 30. Exercise of Voting Rights in Disunity

- ① If a shareholder with two or more voting rights wishes to exercise them in disunity, he or she shall notify the Company of the intent and reason in writing at least three (3) days prior to the meeting date.
- ② The Company may reject a shareholder's exercise of voting rights in disunity; provided, however, that this may not apply to cases where the shareholder acquired trust of shares or holds the shares on behalf of a third party.

Article 31. Voting by Proxy

- ① Shareholders may exercise their vote by proxy.
- ② The proxy holder shall file with the Company a document evidencing his or her power of representation at each general meeting of shareholders at which he or she acts as a proxy.

Article 32. Method of Resolution

All resolutions of a general meeting of shareholders shall be adopted by the affirmative votes of the majority of voting rights of the shareholders present at the meetings and of no less than one (1) quarter of the total number of issued and outstanding shares of the Company, except otherwise prescribed under these Articles of Incorporation or law.

Article 32-2. (Deleted on March 13, 2009)

Article 33. Meeting Minutes

The summary and result of the proceedings of a general meeting of shareholders shall be recorded in the minutes, which shall bear the names and seals or signatures of the chairman and the directors in attendance at the meeting, and shall be kept in the Company's head office and branches.

CHAPTER 6 AUDIT COMMITTEE

Article 49. Composition of Audit Committee

- ① The Company shall establish an audit committee in accordance with Article 48 in lieu of an auditor (“Audit Committee”).
- ② The Audit Committee shall consist of at least three (3) directors, and at least one (1) member shall be an accounting or financial expert as defined in Subparagraph 1, Paragraph 2 of Article 542-11 of the Commercial Act.
- ③ At least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Audit Committee shall be outside directors. If any member of the audit committee is an internal director, they shall meet the requirements of Paragraph 2 of Article 542-10 of the Commercial Act.
- ④ The members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed among the directors elected at a general meeting of shareholders. In this case, one of the members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed separately from other members by a resolution of a general meeting of shareholders as a director who will become a member of the audit committee.
- ⑤ The appointment of a member of the Audit Committee shall be made by a majority vote of the shareholders in attendance, provided that it represents at least one-fourth (1/4) of the total number of shares issued in the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, if voting rights may be exercised electronically under Paragraph 1 of Article 368-4 of the Commercial Act, the appointment of members of the Audit Committee may be passed as a resolution with a majority of the voting rights of shareholders in attendance.
- ⑥ A member of the audit committee may be removed by the resolution of a general meeting of shareholders in accordance with Article 434 of the Commercial Act. In this case, the member of the Audit Committee subject to Paragraph 4 above shall be removed as a director, and as a member of the Audit Committee.
- ⑦ Any shareholder who has shares in excess of three percent (3%) of the total number of issued shares in the Company, excluding non-voting shares, (in the case of the largest shareholder, the shares held by their specially-related persons and persons determined by the Enforcement Decree of the Commercial Act shall be aggregated when electing or removing a member of the Audit Committee who is not an outside director) may not exercise their voting rights on the shares in excess when electing or removing a member of the Audit Committee.

- ⑧ The Audit Committee shall select a representative by a resolution. In this case, the chairperson shall be an outside director.
- ⑨ If the number of outside directors fails to meet the requirements for composing the Audit Committee prescribed in this Article due to the resignation, death, etc. of outside directors, the requirements shall be met at the first general meeting of shareholders convened after the occurrence of such an event.

Article 50. Duty of Audit Committee

- ① The Audit Committee shall audit the execution of directors' duties.
- ② The Audit Committee may, if necessary, request a director (this refers to the person with the authority to convene, if any; the same shall apply hereinafter) to convene the Board of Directors by delivering a letter describing the purpose and reason for such convocation.
- ③ If the director fails to promptly convene the Board of Directors despite a request made under Paragraph 2, the Audit Committee may convene the Board of Directors.
- ④ The Audit Committee may request the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting by delivering a letter describing the purpose and reason for convening the meeting.
- ⑤ The Audit Committee, when necessary to perform its duties, may request reports on the business operations from its affiliates. In cases where an affiliate fails to promptly submit the report or when there is a need to verify the contents of the report, the Audit Committee may investigate the business operations and assets of the affiliated company.
- ⑥ The Audit Committee shall select an external auditor, and shall determine the audit fees, audit hours and personnel required for such appointment.
- ⑦ The Audit Committee shall handle matters required by law or this Articles of Incorporation, in addition to the matters under Paragraphs 1 through 6 above, and those matters delegated by the Board of Directors.
- ⑧ The decisions of the Audit Committee cannot be reconsidered by the Board of Directors.
- ⑨ The Audit Committee may seek the assistance of professionals at the Company's expense.

Article 51. Audit Report

The Audit Committee shall prepare an audit report of its audit, and the execution summary of the audit and its result shall be described in the audit report, on which members of the Audit Committee who executed the audit shall attach their names/seals or signatures.
